

THE INDIANAPOLIS NEWS, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 1, 1916.

Verdict for Chevrolet.

A verdict for Arthur Chevrolet, an auto race driver, who was sued in the superior court, Room 2, by Fred L. Spring, for damages resulting from an auto collision, was returned by a jury yesterday after deliberating four hours. The collision occurred at Delaware and St. Joseph streets, August 9 last. Chevrolet was driving south in Delaware street and Spring was driving east in St. Joseph street. Chevrolet's car struck the rear of Spring's machine, throwing the driver against the steering wheel. He was cut by glass broken from the windshield. Spring asked $3,000 as damages.