
RACE DRIVER'S WIFE HURT.

Mrs. Arthur Chevrolet Thrown From Car When It Hits Sand Pile.

Mrs. Arthur Chevrolet, wife of the race driver, 702 North Meridian street, was thrown from an automobile Sunday, and cut about the head when the machine struck a sand pile in front of a house under construction at 845 Dearborn street. Arthur Chevrolet was driving the machine, which was badly damaged when it crashed into the front porch of the house of H. T. Matthews, after striking the sand pile. Mrs. Chevrolet was taken to her home in another automobile.
