

HOWARD WILCOX FUNERAL

---

Services for Indianapolis Race Driver
Are Held at Home.

Funeral services for Howard (Howdy) Wilcox, widely known Indianapolis race driver who was killed Tuesday at Altoona, Pa., when his car turned over on the Altoona speedway track, were held this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home, 2044 North Meridian street. Active pallbearers were S. C. Bohannon, Charles Merz, Donald Herr, Eddie Hearne, Seth Klein and Edgar Updyke. Honorary pallbearers were T. E. Myers, Harry C. Stutz, Tom Rooney, Gil Anderson, Captain Michael Glenn, W. N. Thompson, George Dickson, W. G. Wall, Herb Miller, Fred Duesenberg, Mike Maroney, C. S. Crawford, Joseph R. Roach, Oren Chillson and Louis Chevrolet, all of Indianapolis.

The service was read by a Christian Scientist reader. The Scottish Rite funeral service was read at the home and at the grave in Crown Hill cemetery.

---