

SHOOTING PAR

by Dick Miller

WHAT could be a better way to start the column off today than with a story about the two Indianapolis linksmen who most recently joined the golf hall of fame.

Arthur Chevrolet, 2317 East Riverside drive, well known in automobile racing circles, and J. A. Stevens, 447 North Sherman drive, are the latest to join the "Hole-in-one" club.

Both scored aces on hole No. 16, but on different courses. Stevens made his at Riverside on a 105-yard hole, while Chevrolet scored his at Speedway on a 109-yard hole.

Witnesses to the Stevens feat were C. K. Sheffield, W. L. Ballenger and Bobby Dale. Those who were looking on when Chevrolet nearly went into hysterics were Thomas Jackson and Arthur Taylor.
