

EYEWITNESS impression gathered by Vic Forsyth, noted author of "Joe's Car," published in the Evening Express, of the terrific crash at the Los Angeles speedway yesterday in which Gaston Chevrolet and Mechanician Lyall Jolles were killed, and Eddie O'Donnell suffered a fractured skull. The two autos catapulted down the embankment amid a mass of splintered timber. Chevrolet and Jolles were thrown clear, landing on the open track. Right car, Chevrolet's; left, O'Donnell's.
