

June 6, 1934

PREDICTS AUTO IMPROVEMENTS

Automobiles of the future will be faster, as well as more efficient and more comfortable, but only as improvement in highways and traffic regulation make greater speed possible, in the opinion of Louis Chevrolet, "The Flying Frenchman" and former king of the racing speedway, now a designer and the world's greatest automobile enthusiast, who is in Syracuse today.