

Birmingham Scouts to Hear Talks by Speed Notables

BIRMINGHAM, Feb. 23—Three nationally known racing men will trace the history of transportation in their respective fields Friday night in the Community House, where they will be the guests of Birmingham Boy Scouts at the annual Father and Son banquet.

James G. Haizlip, holder of the transcontinental speed record for airplanes; Louis Chevrolet, famous auto track racer of two decades ago and W. D. Edenburn, chief steward of the Harmsworth Trophy Race and official of the Indianapolis Memorial Day Race will add to their talks some of their personal experiences while records were being broken.

Shelton Wright, president of the Boy Scout Committee, is in charge of the banquet.
