

All of 'Em There, Bosses and Celebrities

Second Row—Louis Chevrolet, Barney Oldfield, Harry Miller, A. C. Newby, Henry Ford, Carl Fisher, James Allison, Harry Stutz, Charles Crawford.

Herewith is a group picture taken at the trackside. In it are Carl Fisher, James Allison and A. C. Newby, three of the original founders of the speedway. In addition to the founders are the Three-A racing officials who have had charge of the race. Still further are Barney Oldfield, one of the older crop of racers, together with Harry Miller, builder of racing cars; Louis Chevrolet, old time racer and builder of two speedway race winners, the Monroe and the Frontenac. Harry Stutz, who owner the H. C. S., winner last year, mingled with the other celebrities.
